Dear Sir,

The Municipal Council sanctioned the appointment of a Personal Clerk to the President at its meeting held on 5/5/42 In pursuance of this sanction, I have selected Mr. S.P.Bhombore, Loan Clerk of this office to work as my Personal Clerk in addition to his own duties.

In this connection, I crave your indulgence to point out that the loan work has to continue for 60 years, that is, so long as the loan itself continues. Mr.S.P.Bhombore was appointed as Loan Clerk after he underwent a course of training in the Loan Section of the Comptroller's Office. It is therefore necessary in the interest of the loan section of the Municipality, that he has to continue to work as Loan Clerk in this office till the loan is fully discharged. The work itself is technical and requires to be handled by an efficient and trustworthy official and Mr. Bombore was selected to the post as best fitted for it

Besides, I am in need of a Personal Clerk who is well acquainted with the work of municipal administration. Mr. Bhombore satisfies the test, having started his service here He has worked in various branches of the Municipality, acquiring experience and knowledge of municipal matters. He has been efficient and honest.

In pursuance of Government Orders, vide letter No. L 3356-57/Ml.130-41-1 dated 31st October 1941, the Municipal Commissioner has forwarded a list of officials who have put in more than fiv years service in this Municipality for being transferred therefrom. I learn that the name of Mr. S.R.Bhombore also is included in that list, as he has put in more than 5 years service in this Municipality. For the reasons set forth above, I request you to kindly move Government for taking off his name from the list and oblige.

Yours sincerely,

K Hanmanthaya
